

From March 2 to 13, Dr. Eyjólfur Guðmundsson, the Rector of the University of Akureyri (UNAK), Iceland, visited Kobe University.

● Discussion on MoU

On March 3, Dr. Eyjólfur Guðmundsson (left) and Mr. Rúnar Gunnarsson, Director of the International Office visited GSICS to discuss exchange programs and MoU with Professor Akiho Shibata (right). During the discussion, we confirmed further collaboration in joint research and education and the promotion of exchange programs and internships.

● Courtesy Visit by Dr. Eyjólfur Guðmundsson to Kobe University

On March 13, Dr. Eyjólfur Guðmundsson (center) paid a courtesy visit to President Masato Fujisawa (right) accompanied by Professor Akiho Shibata (left). Dr. Eyjólfur Guðmundsson also met with Tamotsu Nakamura, Executive Vice-President and further explained the current situation in Iceland and the state of research on legal policy in the Arctic and Antarctic.

● PCRC International Law Seminar

On the afternoon of March 13, Dr. Eyjólfur Guðmundsson gave a lecture entitled "Science Diplomacy in Difficult Geopolitical Situations" at the seminar ("Governance and Global Challenges: The Future of International Law in the Polar Regions") organized by the Polar Cooperation Research Center (PCRC) at GSICS.

