

Guidelines for Submission of Master's Thesis

Students who intend to submit their Master's Theses or Research Papers for examination must submit them in accordance with these Guidelines (Research Paper is a paper on a specific topic of research).

1. Deadline for Submission of the Title of Master's Thesis

Students who intend to submit their Master's Theses in July must submit the Master's Thesis Title form to the Dean of the GSICS by April 15 (for those who submit their master's theses in January, by October 31 of the preceding year).

If the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it will be postponed to the next business day.

Submissions after the deadline will not be accepted.

2. Deadline for Submission of Master's Thesis

The deadline for the submission of your Master's Thesis is 5:00 pm on July 15 for students completing their program in September, and 5:00 pm on January 31 for those completing in March.

If the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it will be postponed to the next business day.

Submissions after the deadline will not be accepted.

3. Method of Thesis Submission

The thesis must be submitted in electronic format (PDF file) to the Academic Affairs Office. The submission procedure will be announced separately.

4. Preparing the Thesis

(1) The thesis must be written in English. It must be compiled in the following order: a cover page prepared in accordance with the "Format of Thesis", a summary as described in section (3) below, a table of contents, and the main text.

(2) Page settings and other stylistic requirements:

Use Times New Roman, 12-point font, with a minimum of 27 lines per page, in portrait orientation. These requirements do not restrict the presentation of diagrams (graphs) or footnotes.

(3) A summary is required. It should be no more than one page.

(4) The calculation of the length of the thesis includes the table of contents, text, footnotes, and graphs. For the minimum length required, see (5). References are not included.

(5) • Thesis and Research Paper for a Master of Economics

No less than 20 pages

• Thesis for Master of Laws, Political Science and International Studies

No less than 30 pages

• Research Paper for Master of Laws, Political Science and International Studies

No less than 20 pages
